Pastor’s Message

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we enter the third week of our Lenten journey, we focus on the practice of Almsgiving. Almsgiving is an invitation to share the blessings God has given us with those in need, demonstrating love and compassion in tangible ways. It reminds us that our resources are gifts from God, and we are called to use them to serve others and further His Kingdom on Earth.

This week, I encourage you to reflect on how you can live out this call to generosity through your time and resources. One meaningful way we can make a difference in our Diocese is by contributing to the Diocesan Development Drive. This campaign supports critical programs and initiatives that help the less fortunate and promote the mission of the Church in the state of Utah and around the world. Your donation, no matter the amount, helps provide vital support to those in need and furthers our shared work of building a just and compassionate community.

Almsgiving goes beyond financial support; it also calls us to give of our time and talents. Whether it's volunteering at the St. Vincent dining hall, donating your time as a catechist in our Faith Formation program or simply offering a listening ear, every act of kindness reflects the love of Christ. Let us remember that, through our giving, we are not only helping others but growing in our relationship with God.

In this season of Lent, may our hearts be open to the needs around us, and may we respond with generosity, compassion, and love.

Father Dominic's Farewell Open House, Sunday, April 27th, 5-8 pm in the Parish Hall: If you would like to help with the celebration, there is a sign-up sheet at the back of the church. We will need about 50 volunteers.

Holy Moments for the Spanish-Speaking Community: This group meets in an upstairs classroom every Sunday during Lent at 3:00 pm. Books are available for a $5.00 donation. You can pick up your book at the group. It is an excellent book and has proven to provide something meaningful for the Lenten season.

Saint Martin de Porres, pray for us! - Fr. Dominic

Mensaje del pastor

Queridos hermanos y hermanas,

Al comenzar la tercera semana de nuestra Cuaresma, nos centramos en la práctica de la limosna. Dar limosna es una invitación a compartir las bendiciones que Dios nos ha dado con los necesitados, demostrando amor y compasión de maneras tangibles. Nos recuerda que nuestros recursos son dones de Dios y estamos llamados a usarlos para servir a los demás y extender su Reino en la Tierra.

Esta semana, los animo a reflexionar sobre cómo pueden vivir este llamado a la generosidad a través de su tiempo y recursos. Una manera significativa de marcar la diferencia en nuestra Diócesis es contribuyendo a la Campaña de Desarrollo Diocesano. Esta campaña apoya programas e iniciativas cruciales que ayudan a los menos afortunados y promueven la misión de la Iglesia en el estado de Utah y en todo el mundo. Su donación, sin importar la cantidad, ayuda a brindar apoyo vital a los necesitados e impulsa nuestra labor conjunta de construir una comunidad justa y compasiva.

Dar limosna va más allá del apoyo financiero; también nos llama a dar nuestro tiempo y talentos. Ya sea como voluntario en el comedor de San Vicente, donando su tiempo como catequista en nuestro programa de Formación en la Fe o simplemente escuchando, cada acto de bondad refleja el amor de Cristo. Recordemos que, al dar, no solo ayudamos a los demás, sino que también profundizamos nuestra relación con Dios.

En esta Cuaresma, que nuestros corazones estén abiertos a las necesidades que nos rodean y que respondamos con generosidad, compasión y amor.

Jornada de puertas abiertas de despedida del Padre Dominic, domingo 27 de abril, de 17:00 a 20:00 h en el Salón Parroquial. Si desea colaborar con la celebración, encontrará una hoja de inscripción en la parte trasera de la iglesia. Necesitaremos unos 50 voluntarios.

Momentos Sagrados para la Comunidad Hispana: Este grupo se reúne todos los domingos de Cuaresma a las 15:00 h en un aula del piso superior. Hay libros disponibles por una donación de $5.00. Puede recoger su libro en el grupo. Es un libro maravilloso y ha demostrado aportar algo significativo para la temporada de Cuaresma.

¡San Martín de Porres, ruega por nosotros! - Padre Dominic
